Catholic Post Primary Review

The consultation of the Northern Ireland Council for Catholic Education proposals for the rationalisation of all Catholic post primary schools concludes on the 30th June 2010.

Although it is a very difficult time of year for teachers, it is important that all school staffs and indeed any individual teachers, comment on these proposals. Check the NICCE website (www.pprce.org). Do not use the NICCE response form as this restricts you to their preferred options only.

A Pupil Response Form is circulating in post primary schools seeking details of teachers' age, school experience and related details. INTO advises members not to complete this pro forma. At present there are absolutely no guarantees in relation to teachers' conditions of service, job security or any benefits in compulsory redundancy situations arising from school rationalisation and school closure.
