If the employee is subsequently diagnosed with COVID-19, Special Leave With Pay can be retrospectively applied in lieu of the specific period of Sick Leave

4. Restricted Movement

- 4.1.1 Based on the most recent HSE advice, there is no longer a requirement for a person to restrict their movements if they are a close contact of a confirmed COVID-19 case.

- 4.1.2 On this basis, an employee who is a close contact of a confirmed case will continue to attend the workplace, as normal and will not be required to work from home during this period. Therefore, from 1st July 2022 onwards, access to COVID-19: Restricted Movement ceases.
- 4.1.3 For non-ETB schools, where on 30th June 2022 an employee is recorded as on COVID-19: Restricted Movement, the employer is required to insert this end-date on the OLCS record. ETB schools must ensure the same process is carried out on their systems.

5. Higher Risk Groups

5.1 Working Arrangements for Higher Risk Employees – 2021/22 school year

5.1.1 In the 2021/22 school year, arrangements are in place for the following employee categories to be facilitated by the employer to work from home:-

- (a) an employee currently categorised by the Occupational Health Service (OHS) as 'Very High Risk' of serious illness from contracting COVID-19.
- (b) a pregnant employee currently categorised by the OHS as 'High Risk' of serious illness from contracting COVID-19, and working in a special education setting.

5.1.2 The OHS COVID-19 Health Risk Categorisation Reports for the employees at (a) and (b) above will expire at the latest on 30th June 2022.

5.1.3 For non-ETB schools, the current 'Very High Risk' status of the employee will already be recorded by the employer under the OLCS leave category, 'Personal Leave', sub-category titled 'COVID-19: Very High Risk'. The employer is required to insert an end-date of 30th June 2022 on the employee's OLCS record, as their Health Risk Categorisation Report expires on that date. ETB schools must ensure the same process is carried out on their systems.

5.1.4 An employee in the 'high risk' group, as defined by the HSE attends the workplace, as normal.

5.2 Working Arrangements for Very High Risk Employees from 1st July 2022

5.2.1 From the 1st July 2022 (in most cases this will come into effect from the commencement of the 2022/23 school year), an employee in the very high risk group as defined by the HSE, as well as pregnant employees defined in paragraph 5.1.1(b) above, must attend the workplace if they are medically fit for work. The employer has a role in supporting the employee's return to the workplace.

5.2.2 An employer therefore can no longer facilitate remote working for an employee in the very high risk group. On this basis, OHS COVID-19 Health Risk Assessments are no longer available.

5.2.3 As these employees' OHS health risk categorisation status of 'Very High Risk' are due to expire on 30th June 2022, the employer is advised to ensure they carry out a workplace risk assessment, (as detailed at paragraph 1.2 of this Circular), ahead of their return to the workplace.

- 5.2.4 An employee whose OHS health risk categorisation status of 'Very High Risk' is due to expire on 30th June 2022 and who considers they are medically unfit for work, must notify the employer immediately. In accordance with the Sick Leave Scheme, the employer must refer the employee to the OHS in line with the protocol laid out in the Employers Procedures Manual (Chapter 2, paragraph 2 'Employment Medical Assessments'). Please refer to Circular 0054/2019 for teachers and Circular 0060/2019 for SNAs. This referral should take place in advance of the 2022/23 school year.
- 5.2.5 Further to paragraph 5.2.4, where the employee is deemed medically unfit for work by the OHS, the terms and conditions of the Sick Leave Scheme will apply for the period until they are medically fit to return to the workplace. The period must be recorded by the employer as 'Certified Sick Leave' on the OLCS/relevant ETB system.
- 5.2.6 Further to paragraph 5.2.4, where an employee is deemed medically fit for work by the OHS, they may not apply for Critical Illness Provisions (as detailed in the relevant Sick Leave Scheme) due to COVID-19 medical vulnerability alone.
- 5.2.7 A pregnant employee may not apply for Maternity Health and Safety Leave based solely on a COVID-19 risk in the workplace.

6. Cessation of Temporary Arrangements to Leave Schemes

- 6.1.1 The temporary arrangements put in place for certain Leave Schemes will cease at the end of the 2021/22 school year as follows:

The temporary substitution arrangements, introduced under Information Note TC 0018/2021 for primary teachers to permit substitute cover for the brief absences listed in this publication, including EPV Leave, will cease at the end of the 2021/22 school year. Therefore, substitute cover will not be paid by the Paymaster for these non-substitutable absences in primary schools for the 2022/23 school year, and the normal terms and conditions of Circular 32/2007 will apply.

A temporary arrangement introduced under Information Note TC 0018/2021 permitted accumulated untaken EPV Leave from the 2021/22 school year to be taken in the 2022/23 school year. While untaken EPV days may be carried forward into the 2022/23 school year in line with the provisions of Information Note TC 0018/2021, the normal terms and conditions of Circular 37/1997 will apply i.e. no more than 5 days EPV Leave permitted to be taken in any school year, including in the 2022/23 school year and the temporary arrangement to carry forward untaken EPV days into future school years will cease.
